

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC TITLE VI-CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964

As a recipient of federal financial assistance from the FAA and MARAD, the Virgin Islands Port Authority, is required to notify the public of the protections against discrimination afforded to them by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The Virgin Islands Port Authority assures that no person shall on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, as provided by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance. The Virgin Islands Port Authority further assures every effort will be made to ensure non-discrimination in all its programs and activities, whether those programs and activities are federally funded or not.

The Virgin Islands Port Authority is responsible for initiating and monitoring Title VI activities, preparing required reports and other responsibilities as required by Title VI.
